A PLUCKY WOMAN.
She Kills a Big Bear and Captures a Couple of Cubs.

Some days since a farmer's wife in Grayson county, whose name we have not obtained, was frying meat for dinner at her house, situated near a mountain range in a rather wild and sequestered place, her husband in the mean time being engaged at work some distance from the house. The savory odor of the bacon was scented by a couple of young bears ranging on the premises, and enticed them to follow the direction from which it came. They kept the scent till it even drew them into the house where the meat was on the fry. The lady of the house secured the strange visitors, and her knowledge of bears led her to think that these young ones had strayed from their maternal parent, which would soon follow their trail and hunt them up. Her judgment was correct, for it was but a few moments before the old she bear came in sight—an enormous black brute, a kind which, as many of our readers know, will fight to the death for their young. The woman drew down from its rack the old true, tried and trusty mountain rifle that had perhaps served on similar missions to that to which it was about to be called many times before, and fastening the door she made a loophole of the window and waited the approach of her bearish within a sufficient distance for a shot. She waited not long and fired, the ball taking effect but not proving fatal. The report of the rifle drew her laboring husband from his work, who, coming near the house, was chased several hundred yards by the bear, which then gave up the pursuit and returned in quest of her young. The plucky backwoodsman's wife had in the meantime reloaded the rifle, and with the second shot the old bear keeled over, underside topmost, and yielded up the ghost. The cubs, we are told, sold at Independence, the county seat of Grayson, for $26, and the skin of the bear, which was very large, brought the sum of $8 at the same place.

A Russian Contractor.

New York Times.

Polejaief is the name of a Russian contractor whom the Czar's police have been looking for some time. He had had large contracts for supplying the army which liberated Bulgaria with good warm sheepskins. He delivered them to be forwarded to the front, got his receipts, and drew his money. Somehow or other the goods never reached their destination. When the war was discovered that he had sold the same goods to the Turks, and that he advised them where to look for them. He, of course, fled the country when this became known, and nothing further was heard of him until about a year ago, when a superbly ornamented coffin arrived in St. Petersburg, containing the alleged remains of Polejaief, and it was generally supposed that a great scam had escaped his just deserts. A few weeks ago, however, a telegram from Kousik announced that Polejaief had been arrested at Rybinsk, a small town on the Volga, and that the coffin was merely a ruse to throw the authorities off the scent. It will go hard with Polejaief now, as the present Czar considers peculation as an unpardonable crime.

Preserving Plants.

Alfred Dumesset, a son-in-law of Jules Michelet, and the editor of the first of Quinet's works, claims to have made an interesting and useful discovery—how to preserve plants in a perfectly vigorous state without any earth. Since November, 1881, the date at which his researches proved successful, he has been continually taking plants from the ground in France and applying his process to them; has never found the least interruption to their vegetative functions; on the contrary, winter and spring plants have blossomed with a vigor which, as an experienced horticulturist, he has never seen in his garden. With the shelter of a glass, heliothes taken up at the end of November and the middle of December have remained from two and a half to two months in blossom. Other plants, primroses, auriculas, daisies, etc., have not only been in bloom for three months, but have thrown out new buds. Bulbous roots, small shrubs, exotic plants, such as azaleas and cyclamens, take equally well to the process.

Slaven's Effervescent California Fruit Salt

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process, so simple and effectual medicine, for regaining the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Neuralgia, Alkalosis, Gastritis, Chronic Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Overindulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Serofluous Diseases, it has a cooling and tonic, emollient and invigorating effect on the system. The "HUT-SALT" is entirely different from any of the effervescent Salts or Sedatives preparations in the market, being manufactured from fruit. Price by apothecaries $1.00 per pound.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that it is better to pay the expense of the affair of the Pacific Bank, and to submit the following statement of your condition.

Very respectfully, your obedient servants,

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Scribner's Monthly has been arranging, during more than a year past, for an illustrated article on Saint-Gauden's Farragut Monument, which was to have been unveiled in Madison Square, New York, on May 20th. The postponement of the unveiling till the 25th inst. gives the magazine five days' start! The article, which includes a sketch of the sculptor's life, will be accompanied by four illustrations, one of them a full-page engraving, by Cole, of the statue. The same number of Scribner's will have an engraving, by Fred Juengling, of Saint-Gauden's medallion of Bastien Lepage.

The Russian Revolutionists have answered the Czar's manifesto by a second utterance, dwelling on the wretchedness of the peasants, deportations to Siberia, the gagging of free speech and public journals, and declaring that false counselors are in possession of the Czar's ear. The document concludes as follows: "Let Your Majesty assemble your people around you, and listen to their wishes in an unprejudiced spirit, and then neither Your Majesty, nor the State will have any reason to fear further catastrophes."

A World Philadelphia special says: Simon Cameron, being interviewed on the Garfield-Conkling imbroglio, said: "The differences in the Republican party are very serious. I cannot see how they are to be settled. Conkling and the force he represents cannot be crushed out and the party live." He regretted Conkling's resignation. He said: "Grant will not be a candidate for 1884, nor will it make much difference who is, unless there is some way out of the present difficulty. Conkling will probably be re-elected.

Dr. Bergstein, in Virginia, has been removed from the County Hospital. He handed the Commissioners a communication saying that Webber was not qualified for the position. A communication was also received, which was signed by Drs. Hall, Collins, Bronson, Alkin, Aitchison, Kirby, Conn and Manson, recommending Dr. Webber for the position to which he was appointed, and speaking of him in the highest terms of praise as a man and physician. Bergstein seems to constitute in himself a small but active minority.

There are now 79 engineers and 400 subordinate workmen of various grades engaged in making a detailed survey of the Panama Canal route. At the point where it is proposed to dam the Chagres river they have sunk a shaft 100 feet without finding bed rock, and are getting anxious, as no other foundation will be suitable for the great dam, which is to be the largest ever built.

Some painstaking statistician has figured up the ratio of votes cast to the entire population in fifty-nine cities in the United States. The average ratio is 100 votes to 574 people. In New York the ratio was 1 to 5.87. The greatest vote was in Indianapolis —1 to 3.86; the least in New Orleans (where the negroes, as a rule, did not vote)—1 to 8.80.

Fears are expressed that the Monetary Conference is practically a failure. A private letter from one of the English members of the Conference to a friend in London says he does not have much hope of a practical issue. He says the divergence of opinion among delegates does not foreshadow a conclusion that might carry any authority.

The Associated Press tells how much McCullough is liked in London and how much money Jim Bennett is spending in Europe. The Pressman ought to go in for more instructive matter. A few GAZETTE editors would help his eastern constituents to fill up and would increase their subscription lists.

In the case of Ormsby county vs. the Carson City Savings Bank, Judge King held that money loaned at interest secured by mortgage, was subject to taxation. This is an important decision, and unless reversed by the Supreme Court, will have the effect of causing the assessment rolls to be larger than usual.

If Geo. C. Gorham fails to get that Secretaryship of the Senate he won't starve after all. For the past four years he has been hiring the fence around Government Square in Philadelphia for advertising purposes at $1,200 a year and renting it for $8,000. This beats running a Conkling organ.

Judge Robertson is a man above the medium size, with a full head of graying white hair, and a large tuft of goatee upon his chin. He has bluish eyes, regular features, and is a man of considerate, attentive, respectful and remarkable power of thinking on his feet.

Scribner's Monthly, it is said, in the June number, pays an unprecedented compliment to a young western poet, by reprinting from the newspapers nine of her poems. The name of the poet is Miss Edith Thomas, of Geneva, Ohio.

Chinese Labor in Mono.

BODIE, May 24.

Considerable excitement has been aroused here in regard to the employment of Chinamen on the railroad, line to Mono Lake. The company has put a few Chinamen to work at the further end of the line and has advertised for 200 white laborers at $1.25 a day and board at the place of work here. A mass meeting was held to-night, at which a resolution was adopted that no Chinamen should be employed in Mono county. A meeting of the Miners' Union is being held to-night to consider the matter. At 10 o'clock no result had been arrived at. The chances are that if any interference is indulged in the railroad will be abandoned.

ASYLUM SUIT APPEAL.

A Bass-Banger Experiences a Change of Heart.

This is the way it was told: Henry Orr had a civil case in the Verdi Police Court against some Chinamen. J. K. Lovejoy, or "Old Pinto," was a Democrat and would not admit Chinese testimony, so Lawyer Boardman contented himself with abusing the opposing counsel. Cutts got wrathful and was fined $10. Boardman appealed. The Case came on and Orr got beaten in Washoe before the District Court, but not till after his attorney had been sent to jail for 24 hours. In a very despondent state of mind Orr wended his way back to Verdi, entered Bull's saloon, and sought out Boardman. Leading him some distance from the house they sat down on a log and Orr said:

"That seems to be a strange fatality following my law suit. I brought it in the Justice Court and won, but my lawyer was fined $10. It was appealed to the District Court and I lost and my lawyer was sent to jail for 24 hours. Now, I propose to take it to the Supreme Court, and I hope they'll hang the —, and that may settle it."

WANTED HIM HUNG.

An Old Time Law-suit and How Plaintiff Wanted to Settle.

The Carson Tribune of last evening says: County Clerk Hatch to-day received C. S. Varian's transcript on appeal in the Asylum injunction case. And so the matter goes to the Supreme Court for final adjudication. The Tribune has no fears but that what that tribunal will sustain Judge King's decision. King is pretty clear-headed on law questions, and his decisions generally hold.

The Europa Leader seems to have experienced a change of heart on the Asylum matter, and says: On last Saturday at Carson Judge King, of the Second Judicial District Court, in the injunction case brought by Jake Klien, to prevent the payment of any money from the State Treasury for the building of an Insane Asylum at Reno, on the ground that such money would come from the State School Fund, which fund it was by the Constitution unlawful to use for such a purpose, decided that the use of school moneys contemplated by the Asylum Act is within the provision of the Constitution, and that the State is by the Constitution entitled to borrow money to meet the charge of its insane. Some other points were raised by the plaintiff, which were all decided against him. The case may be carried to the Supreme Court, but if it is it will be in a spirit of pure cussedness, and for delay. There never was anything in the State School Fund point, which was the one principally relied on by the opponents of the Asylum.

Pioneer's Picnic.

The Pioneers are doing everything possible for the success of their annual reunion at Treadway's park on June 5th. The trotting race has been changed to read as follows:

Trotting Race—to Harness.—Three-minute Class.—Society purse of $100—gold coin; ten per cent. entrance, five to enter and three to start; $75 to first horse; $25 to second horse. Any horse distancing the field only receives first money. National Association rules to govern the race. All entries to be made with John Sweeny, Carson City, on or before June 4.

The following additional feature has also been added to the programme: Go-as-you-please Race.—Horse or team closest to four minutes wins the purse, $10. Horse to go as owners choose; under saddle, or single or double harness. Entrance, $1.

Go and have some fun with the old coons.

Merit Rewarded.

Professor Wm. Einbeck, of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, is in Reno, from whence he goes to Mineral Hall, near Austin. The party has visited the several stations and taken observations, going as far as Salt Lake where they remained ten days. Professor Einbeck informs the GAZETTE that Robert Marr, his assistant, who is now at Mineral Hall, has been ordered to Washington for examination and promotion. Mr. Marr has many friends in Ormsby and Washoe, and they are all proud of an acquaintance with the talented gentleman. They will send with Mr. Marr many congratulations and wishes for his entire success, of which the GAZETTE entertains no doubt.

Sub-Irrigation.

Messrs. Wilson and Brower, general agents of the Asbestine Sub-Irrigation Co., are in Reno exhibiting their machine for pipe-making. It attracted considerable attention to-day on the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row, where it was on exhibition. Wilson & Brower are selling the appliance by counties. They inform the GAZETTE that California and Arizona have been sold. The pipe is made of sand, lime and cement, and the cost for material is said to be not over one cent per foot. A machine with two men will make from 1,200 to 2,000 feet per day. Our farmers should study the appliance.

Vardi.

S. A. Hamlin is down from Verdi and says that Katz & Henry's mill in Dog Valley is running at the rate of 40,000 feet per day.

A prominent politician from Reno lately visited Verdi, and as usual circulated among the boys. Judge Borman keeps a model hotel and he wouldn't have his rules broken. The Reno man was always late and uncertain in his hours. Borman stood it two nights and then locked him out. "Look here," said he, "I want you to understand that you're not in Reno now, you're in a respectable town."

A NUT CRACKED.

The "Gazette" Helps a Carson Editor Out of the Well of Ignorance.

Under the head of a nut for agriculturists the Carson Appeal would like some agricultural journal to explain why grass, which is fertilized and watered constantly, refuses to come up, and why weeds which are trampled on, cut down, uprooted, and not watered at all, spread over a bigger space every year and thrive like the scriptural green bay tree. If one attempted to raise weeds and exterminate the grass, would not grass raise more successfully prosecuted?

Certainly. You can't prosecute grass-raising successfully unless you understand the facts in the case, and the nature of the offence. Then besides botany comes in to a considerable extent. You should look carefully to the stamens and pistils and be sure that the corollas are in the proper place. If you will take care to gather the pollen dust on the weeds and put it in a tin can, you may help matters. Looking at it in another way. Endogenous, nitrogenous and exogenous plants are different from the common herbaceous shrub or mammalia, but still putting the thing on a higher plane, and looking down upon it, you will notice that—now for instance—

The paper is full.

Hydraulic Mining.

There is some mining going on in the tributaries to Sierra valley this year. The Cascade hydraulic gold mine in Grizzly valley is being worked upon a substantial basis. It is owned by J. D. Fagg, who is President. The Trustees are A. Kirby of Sierra valley, Mr. Walsh of Vallejo and Mr. Wyat. R. Hughes is Secretary. They have 250 feet pressure and 3 miles of ditch. The gold is mostly oxidized and coarse. Weston & Co. are working the old Antelope quartz mine in Mohawk valley upon a small scale. Some other miners are at work in the Mohawk, but what the result will be from any of them cannot be told at present.

Sierra Sayings.

The crops of hay and grain are looking well about Loyalton, but the hopper is eyeing each stalk.

Cattle thieves are working in Sierra valley.

The policeman and physician are idle.

Railroad talk is dull.

The sheep men are happy on account of the lamb crop. The average is one lamb and three-quarters to each ewe.

Last year's hay crop is moving towards Truckee and Reno to make room for the new crop.

What He Knew.

"Do you know anything to-day, Chase?"

"Yes."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

On one Star route in New Mexico the cost to the Government for the carrying of a single letter was $700.

The electric light on Thursday evening was powerful enough to illuminate the streets, but was entirely too unsteady.—Philadelphia Ledger, May 14th.

The Mississippi River floods have carried disaster to a strip of country as broad as Massachusetts, and twice as long as from Boston to Chicago.

Mexican investments in the past seven months have absorbed $78,000,000 of American capital. Much of this is in nominal subscriptions, but no small share represents valid consideration.

The oldest Post master in the Union is Edward Stabler of Sandy Springs, Montgomery County, Md. He has held the office 51 years, and has been under 18 Postmaster Generals. He is 87 years old, and still lives in the house in which he was born.

A Philadelphia clergyman assisted a woman to tie on her bonnet, and the verdict of the council which tried him for it was: "It was a brotherly act, but he'd better let 'em tie on their bonnets after this."

We know of no man so cross-eyed, says an exchange, as that man who put his hand into another man's pocket and abstracted therefrom a watch. He wanted to learn the time. The judge told him that it would be three years.

It is believed that the postal revenues for the year will exceed $35,000,000, which will be about $4,000,000 more than the estimates made 18 months ago. This excess is due to the revival of business, which was unanticipated when the estimates were made.

George C. Gorham is in all probability making less money as editor of the Washington Republican than he would as Secretary of the Senate; but he is probably enjoying himself a good deal more. He is a peppery little man, with a pepper and salt beard, a brisk manner, a kindly way towards people, and a habit of saying spiteful things. He has a great political future behind him.—Springfield Republican.
